DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

FISCAL SERVICE

BUREAU OF GOVERNMENT FINANCIAL OPERATIONS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20226

October 1, 1975

TO: PRIVACY ACT CONTACTS

Enclosed are copies of Privacy Act notices which should accompany certain Government forms when the form is mailed to an individual. These Government forms are the responsibility of the Bureau of Government Financial Operations, Department of the Treasury.

Since the forms solicit general information about an individual and in certain cases specifically the social security account number, the Privacy Act requires that the individual be informed of (1) the authority for soliciting, (2) purpose of, (3) uses for, and (4) effect of not providing the information. See 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(3), as added by section 3 of the Privacy Act of 1974. That act requires similar information with respect to the social security account number under Section 7.

Each Privacy Act requirement notice enclosed herewith contain a reference to the Government forms, Standard Forms or other forms, which are to be associated with the particular notice. These notices must be associated with the applicable Government forms when mailing to an individual.

It will be the responsibility of the Privacy Act Contact Officer to see that all operations within his department or agency using the particular forms are supplied with a copy of the Privacy Act notices enclosed herewith. These notices should be reproduced by the units using the forms in the volume necessary to assure their receipt by all individuals to whom the Government forms are delivered.

This Department is also providing through publication in the Federal Register this same information for application to all Government agencies, Federal Reserve Banks, and financial organizations holding these forms.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9397

NUMBERING SYSTEM FOR FEDERAL ACCOUNTS RELATING TO INDIVIDUAL PERSONS

WHEREAS certain Federal agencies from time to time require in the administration of their activities a system of numerical identification of accounts of individual persons; and

WHEREAS some seventy million persons have heretofore been assigned account numbers pursuant to the Social Security Act; and

WHEREAS a large percentage of Federal employees have already been assigned account numbers pursuant to the Social Security Act; and

WHEREAS it is desirable in the interest of economy and orderly administration that the Federal Government move towards the use of a single, unduplicated numerical identification system of accounts and avoid the unnecessary establishment of additional systems:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. Hereafter any Federal department, establishment, or agency shall, whenever the head thereof finds it advisable to establish a new system of permanent account numbers pertaining to individual persons, utilize exclusively the Social Security Act account numbers assigned pursuant to Title 26, section 402.502 of the 1940 Supplement to the Code of Federal Regulations¹ and pursuant to paragraph 2 of this order.

2. The Social Security Board shall provide for the assignment of an account number to each person who is required by any Federal agency to have such a number but who has not previously been assigned such number by the Board. The Board may accomplish this purpose by (a) assigning such numbers to individual persons, (b) assigning blocks of numbers to Federal agencies for reassignment to individual persons, or (c) making such other arrangements for the assignment of numbers as it may deem appropriate.

3. The Social Security Board shall furnish, upon request of any Federal agency utilizing the numerical identification system of accounts provided for in this order, the account number pertaining to any person with whom such agency has an account or the name and other identifying data pertaining to any account number of any such person.

4. The Social Security Board and each Federal agency shall maintain the confidential character of information relating to individual persons obtained pursuant to the provisions of this order.

5. There shall be transferred to the Social Security Board, from time to time, such amounts as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget shall determine to be required for reimbursement by any Federal agency for the services rendered by the Board pursuant to the provisions of this order.

6. This order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.
